RELIGIOUS STUDIES

POTENTIAL CAREER SALARIES...

YOUTH WORK
£40K+

SOCIAL WORK
£36K+

LAW ENFORCEMENT
£32K+

Year 12: Academic Route
Religious Studies (Philosophy & Ethics) A Level

TOP SKILLS
- ▸ Critical Thinking
- ▸ Cultural Awareness
- ▸ Communication

YOUR PROGRESSION PATHWAYS

Degree studies in Philosophy, Sociology, Politics, Psychology and Criminology, Journalism, Teaching, and many others.

ACADEMIC ROUTE

Students in the academic route will select 3 subjects each equivalent to 1 A Level.

Name: Mr Green| Position: Head of RE, Sociology & PSHE | Email: p.green@tpt.merciantrust.org.uk

Course Details

Examination board: OCR
Assessment information
Paper 1: 2-hour examination
Paper 2: 2-hour examination
Paper 3: 2-hour examination

Course Description

Paper 1: Philosophy of Religion
What do people mean by the term God? Are all attempts to discuss supernatural ideas ultimately meaningless?
33% of A Level

Paper 2: Religion and Ethics
Explore a range of ethical theories in response to a range of ethical issues such as; euthanasia, business ethics, sexual ethics
33% of A Level

Paper 3: Development in Christian Thought

Explore the themes of Feminism and Marxism in the Bible. How is Jesus liberator? What questions does diversity of belief raise in Christianity?